

Customer Journey Map – Field Technician

This document outlines the customer journey of a field technician in the Field Service WorkOrder Optimization system. It includes a visual representation of each stage in the technician's experience—from receiving assignments to completing work and updating statuses.

